

How to register and what to bring accompanying family

At the International Citizen Service (ICS) you find all relevant authorities under one roof. You can do all necessary registrations (EU residence document, personal registration number (CPR), health insurance and tax card), find valuable information and get personal guidance.

Family members (spouse/registered or cohabiting partner and children under the age of 21 years) to workers, students, self-employed persons or jobseekers with sufficient funds in Denmark (principal person) can apply for a residence permit to Denmark. The application process and which forms to use, depends on the principal person and the family members' nationality.

Check if you can use ICS:

Check if your closest ICS can issue your CPR-number. The municipality you reside in should be listed under the ICS centre you plan to visit. Please refer to each centre's check list for workers at icitizen.dk for a detailed description of the registration procedure at each centre.

What to bring as an accompanying family member, when you are:

- an EU/EEA/Swiss citizen page 2
- a non-EU/EEA/Swiss citizen who accompanies an EU/EEA/Swiss citizen page 3
- a non-EU/EEA/Swiss citizen who accompanies a non-EU/EEA/Swiss citizen page 5

EU/EEA/Swiss citizen

An EU/EEA/Swiss citizen, who accompanies an EU/EEA/Swiss citizen, can apply for an EU residence document in Denmark, if the spouse/partner (the principal person) has already been granted – or who is simultaneously applying for – an EU residence document in Denmark. If you stay in Denmark for more than 3 months, you must register for an EU residence document and a personal registration number. Your spouse/partner must accompany you, when you register.

Please bring (in hard copy):

- Form OD1. Each family member must fill in form OD1 – incl. accompanying children. You find the form on www.newtodenmark.dk > EU residence > Application. Please note, that Appendix B.1 and B.2 must be signed in front of the person from The Danish Agency for International Recruitment and Integration (SIRI) or a notary. Please remember to book an appointment on www.newtodenmark.dk > Contact us
- Original passport/national ID card with photo + a copy
- One passport size photo
- Proof of the principal person's current basis for residence - work (e.g. currently completed appendix A in OD1 form), funds (e.g. current transcript from bank) or similar
- Principal person's registration certificate + a copy
- A completed arrival form for new citizens in Denmark. The registration procedure depends on which ICS office you visit. You can find further information about the CPR registration procedure in the checklists for "Workers" on www.icitizen.dk
- A proof of your address in Denmark (e.g. rental contract, letter from landlord) + a copy
- Original marriage certificate (if you are married) + a copy. If applicable: divorce certificate/death certificate
- Documentation for long-term cohabitation (min. 18 months) if you are not married – e.g. a common rental contract, transcript from national personal register or similar
- Original birth certificate(s) for accompanying children under 18 years + a copy

Please note: Only marriage and birth certificates in English/German/Scandinavian languages are accepted. Translation of the certificates must be done in a satisfactory manner. Marriage and birth certificates from some countries need to be apostille certified or legalised.

You must attend in person at the International Citizen Service, when you register. This also applies to accompanying children.

Children not accompanied by both parents

If you are applying for an EU residence document on behalf of your child when the child's other parent will not be moving to Denmark, you must in addition to proving your relationship with the child, either prove that you have full custody of the child in the form of a valid decision regarding parental custody, or that the other parent consents to the move.

Consent can be given by the other parent either verbally, if he/she attends in person with you and the child when you register, or by providing written consent to a notary. If the consent is not in Danish, English or German, it must be translated into one of these languages in a satisfactory manner after it has been authenticated by a notary.

Non-EU/EEA/Swiss Citizen who accompanies an EU/EEA/Swiss citizen

A Non-EU/EEA citizen, who accompanies an EU/EEA citizen, can apply for an EU residence document according to EU regulations in Denmark. Your partner/spouse must be able to prove, that he/she has legal residence in Denmark and that he/she has established genuine residency in Denmark. If you stay in Denmark for more than 3 months, you must apply for an EU residence document and a personal registration number. Your spouse/partner must accompany you, when you register.
